Clark Mitchell won the poster award during his participation in the 3rd Annual Sedona Plein Air Festival last year (see - www.sedonapleinairfestival.com) and agreed to give a four day workshop following his festival participation this year. The workshop will focus on pastel painting on-site in the beautiful Sedona landscape. Featuring demonstration, lecture and individual attention to each student the workshop will also explore working on various surfaces and grounds to achieve different results.

Come early to see all the work done by the 30 artists during the 4th Annual Sedona Plein Air Festival work will be on display Oct 25 & 26, 2008 at the Sedona Arts Center. For more information and to see Clark Mitchell's Award winning piece visit the festival website at www.sedonapleinairfestival.com .
